CSEA Endorses Gabi Madden for Assembly District 103 Primary Election

Kingston, NY —Democrat and experienced public servant Gabi Madden, candidate for New York State Assembly has received the endorsement of the Civil Service Employees Association, New York State’s largest union representing state and local government workers.

“I am incredibly proud to have the endorsement of CSEA. Receiving this support from New York State’s largest public sector union is a testament to the strong backing my campaign has from working class people in our community,” said Madden, “those who depend on their elected leaders to provide results over rhetoric. They have my back because they know I am the candidate who has theirs. I am eager to serve as their champion in Albany, ensuring their rights are protected and their voices amplified.

“We’re happy to announce our endorsement of Gabi Madden for NYS Assembly. She has the government experience needed to be an effective legislator on day one, having previously worked in executive level roles with former Assemblyman Kevin Cahill and Senator James Skoufis. We look forward to helping ensure that Gabi is the next state representative for AD 103,” said Anthony M. Adamo, CSEA Southern Region President.

“Having worked with Gabi on multiple issues over the course of her legislative career, we know that she is ready to step right into the role of Assemblymember, and we are confident that she will be an exemplary advocate for working people throughout both AD 103 and New York State at large,” said Todd Schmidt, CSEA Southern Region Political Action Committee Chairman.

Assembly District 103 includes the towns of Esopus, Gardiner, Hurley, Kingston, Marbletown, New Paltz, Olive, Rosendale, Saugerties, Ulster, Woodstock, and the City of Kingston in Ulster County along with the towns of Red Hook and Rhinebeck in Dutchess County.
